The Open Hymnal

Edition 2026.11

12 November 2026

This hymnal is a part of the Open Hymnal Project to create a freely distributable, downloadable database of Christian hymns, spiritual songs, and prelude/postlude music. I am doing my best to create a final product that is "Hymnal-quality", and could feasibly be used as the basis for a printed church hymnal. This music is to be distributed as complete scores (words and music), using all accompaniment parts, in formats that are easily accessible on most computer OS's and which can be freely modified by anyone. The current format of choice is the ABC Plus format, favored by folk music distributors on the internet. All scores will also be converted into pdf, MIDI, and mp3 formats.

The maintainer of the Open Hymnal Project is Brian J. Dumont (editor at openhymnal dot org). I have gone through serious efforts to make sure that no copyright mistake makes it into this database. If I am in error, please inform me as soon as possible. This entire effort has used only free software, and I am indebted to the efforts of many other individuals, including the authors of the various ABC and ABC Plus software. Undoubtedly, I am also indebted to all of the great Christians who wrote these hymns.

This database comes with no guarantees whatsoever.

I would love to get email from anyone who uses the Open Hymnal, and I will take requests for hymns to add. My decision of whether to add a hymn will be based on these criteria (in the following order):

1) It must be in the public domain or otherwise freely distributable
2) It must be a Christian piece
3) Whether I have access to a printed copy of the music (surprisingly, a MIDI file is usually a terrible source)
4) Whether I like the hymn :)

If you would like to contribute to the Open Hymnal Project, please send an email to me, I would love the help! PLEASE EMAIL ME IF YOU FIND ANY MISTAKES, no matter how small. I want to ensure that every slur, stem, hyphenation, and punctuation mark is correct; and I'm sure that there must be mistakes right now.

Open Hymnal Project, 2026 Edition "Freely you received, so freely give."- Matthew 10:8 (WEB)

Copying

The Open Hymnal Project uses copyright law of the United States of America. In other countries, it is your responsibility to verify each hymn as being freely distributable.

Four parts of a hymn are copyrightable:

1. Music (melody)
2. Setting (also known as arrangement or harmony)
3. Words (original language)
4. Translation (if applicable)

Each of these parts holds a separate copyright status, and must be considered individually.

Most of the hymns in the Open Hymnal are in the public domain in all four of these parts. Some are not. Specific copyright terms are listed on each score sheet and in each abc file.

All content produced specifically by the Open Hymnal which is not a part of a hymn is placed into the public domain. This includes compilation, indices, web pages (or parts thereof), scripts used to assemble the hymnal, and all other data files. Work from other open source projects is not our copyright and remains copyright of the respective owners. This includes but is not limited to the "Zebra Tables" script by David S. Miller used on the web pages, which remains copyright of David S. Miller.

Public Domain

All hymns or hymn parts listed as "public domain" are not under copyright protection in the United States of America. In other words there is absolutely no ownership of the intellectual property that the words, translation, music, or setting represents.

No one may restrict you from using these hymn parts in any way (in the USA). Similarly, you may not restrict others from using them in any way. If you change a portion of the public domain work, you may only claim copyright on the portion which you have changed.

Other

Each work in the Open Hymnal which is not in the public domain gives specific license terms on the score sheet and in the abc source file.

Most of these have a license which reads similar to the following (from the hymn "Author of All Life"):

> Words: Copyright 2009, Brian J. Dumont. These lyrics may be freely reproduced or published for Christian worship, provided they are not altered, and this notice is on each copy. All other rights reserved.

This means that you may freely use, print, reproduce, and make available for others the work in question, provided that the purpose is for Christian worship and that the copyright terms are left intact and are reproduced with the copyrighted work. This does not prevent you from using the copyrighted work as a part of another work which will be sold for-profit, provided that these terms are met.

Other license terms may be available, but can only be negotiated with the copyright holder. If you would like to use one of these works but require a different license, the Open Hymnal will attempt to help you to contact the copyright holder. We may be contacted via email at: editor at openhymnal dot org

Assembly

It is the contention and intention of the Open Hymnal Project that when numerous hymns are gathered into a collection, such as one of the printable editions, the hymns themselves remain separate and independent works. Thus, the copyright applied to any one hymn is not applicable in any way to the copyright of another.

Let Thy dear Word 'mid doubt and strife
Be so within us burning,

Christ confessing,
Let us win our Savior's blessing.

Shall not grieve Thee; We recieve Thee;
Where Thou livest.
Peace, and love, and joy Thou givest.

In purest holiness be passed,
Be Thou our Strength forever;

These lyrics are rather obscure, though quite beautiful. The earth (which represents all of God's promises to His People, Gen 13:14-15, Rom 4:13-17, Mt 5:5) and the water (which represents Baptism and forgiveness, Jn 3:5, Eph 5:25-27, 1Pt 3:21) are frozen and lifeless as the Law reigns alone (2Cor 3:6b), with no grace flowing before Christ. The Spirit (the wind) works in the world through the condemnation of the Law and the hope for redemption to come (frosty wind made moan, Micah 4:10, Ez 21:6-7). Then Christ humbly comes to melt the icy world in grace. This then inspires those saved, who recognize that they have nothing to give to Him, to finally, through His grace, fulfill the greatest commandment (Mt 22:37).

"When the Japanese have a Christmas devotional booklet, Mary is a Japanese woman, and her Child is a Japanese boy. With that, they are confessing that He was born for them too. My joy beyond all measure.
When I appear before Thy throne,

With these I need not hide me.
And there, in garments richly wrought
As Thine own bride, I shall be brought

7. My Shepherd, now receive me; my Guardian, own me Thine.
Great blessings Thou didst give me, O source of gifts divine.
Thy lips have often fed me with words of truth and love;
Thy Spirit oft hath led me to heavenly joys above.

O Savior, do not chide me! When breaks Thy loving heart,
When soul and body languish in death's cold, cruel grasp,
Then, in Thy deepest anguish, Thee in mine arms I'll clasp.

9. The joy can never be spoken, above all joys beside,
When in Thy body broken I thus with safety hide.
O Lord of Life, desiring Thy glory now to see,

Remind me of Thy passion when my last hour draws nigh.
Mine eyes shall then behold Thee, upon Thy cross shall dwell,
My heart by faith enfolds Thee. Who dieth thus dies well.

6. The load Thou takest on Thee,
That pressed so sorely on me,
it crushed me to the ground.
The cross for me enduring,
The crown for me securing,
My healing in Thy wounds is found.

7. A crown of thorns Thou wearest,
My shame and scorn Thou bearest,
That I might ransomed be.
My Bondsman, ever willing,
My place with patience filling,
From sin and guilt hast made me free.

8. Into death's jaws Thou springest,
Deliv'rance to me bringest
From such a monster dire.
My death away Thou takest,
Thy grave its grave Thou makest;
Of love, O unexampled fire!

9. Thy cords of love, my Savior,
Bind me to Thee forever,
I am no longer mine.
To Thee I gladly tender
All that my life can render
And all I have to Thee resign.

10. Not much can I be giving
In this poor life I'm living,
But one thing do I say:
Thy death and sorrows ever,
Till soul from body sever,
My heart remember shall for aye.

11. Thy cross I'll place before me,
Its saving power be o'er me,
Wherever I may be;
Thine innocence revealing,
Thy love and mercy sealing,
The pledge of truth and constancy.

12. How God at our transgression
To anger gives expression,
How loud His thunder rolls,
How fearfully He smiteth,
How sorely He requiteth,-
All this Thy sufferings teach my soul.

13. From them shall I be learning,
How I may be adorning,
My heart with quietness,
And how I still should love them
Whose malice aye doth move them
To grieve me by their wickedness.

14. When evil men revile me,
With wicked tongues defile me,
I'll curb my vengeful heart.
The unjust wrong I'll suffer,
Unto my neighbor offer
Forgiveness for each bitter smart.

15. I'll on the cross unite me
To Thee, what doth delight me
I'll there renounce for aye.
Whate'er Thy Spirit's grieving,
There I'll for aye be leaving,
As much as in my strength doth lay.

16. Thy groaning and thy sighing,
Thy bitter tears and dying,
With which Thou wast opprest,-
They shall, when life is ending,
Be guiding and attending
My way to Thine eternal rest.

Surety for my heav'nly bliss,
And my bapt'sm a reflection
Of Thy death and resurrection

8. Unto life Thou shalt arouse me
By Thy resurrection's pow'r;
Though the hideous grave shall house me,
And my flesh the worms devour;
Fire and water may destroy
My frail body, yet with joy
I shall rise as Thou hast risen
From the deep sepulchral prison.

9. Grant me grace, O blessed Savior,
And Thy Holy Spirit send,
That my walk and my behavior
May be pleasing in the end;
That I may not fall again
Into death's grim pit and pain
When by grace Thou hast received me,
And from which Thou hast relieved me.

10. For the joy Thy birth doth give me,
For Thy holy, precious Word;
For Thy baptism which doth save me,
For Thy gracious festal board;
For Thy death, the bitter scorn,
For Thy resurrection morn,
Lord I thank Thee and extol Thee,
And in heav'n I shall behold Thee.

6. While here in flesh You taught us, Lord
   The object sure and right:
   To see our Father's glory bright,
   To have eternal life.

7. A goal beyond our reach You've shown;
   We cannot pay the price.
   No work of ours atones for sin,
   We cannot set things right.

8. You are the Truth, You are the Way
   for us to see His face.
   You died for us a sinner's death
   abandoned in our place.

9. On Easter day, Lord, You were raised
   Firstfruits of our new Life;
   And in the cloud we see the day
   When joy will end all strife.

10. We wait to see the cloud's return
    To be with us below,
    When You fulfill Your promises
    To bring us to Your home.

11. And though we wait to see You now
    We know that You are near.
    Your promises to build our faith
    Are stronger than our fear.

12. You give us faith by Your strong Word
    In water, wine, and bread.
    The Spirit works through earthly means,
    in pastures green we're fed.

6. Against the demon snares of sin,
The vice that gives temptation force,
The natural lusts that war within,
The hostile men that mar my course;
Or few or many, far or nigh,
In every place and in all hours,
Against their fierce hostility
I bind to me these holy powers.

7. Against all Satan's spells and wiles,
Against false words of heresy,
Against the knowledge that defiles,
Against the heart's idolatry,
Against the wizard's evil craft,
Against the death wound and the burning,
The choking wave, the poisoned shaft,
Protect me, Christ, till Thy returning.

8. Christ be with me, Christ within me,
Christ behind me, Christ before me,
Christ beside me, Christ to win me,
Christ to comfort and restore me.
Christ beneath me, Christ above me,
Christ in quiet, Christ in danger,
Christ in hearts of all that love me,
Christ in mouth of friend and stranger.

9. Δ I bind unto myself the Name,
The strong Name of the Trinity,
By invocation of the same,
The Three in One and One in Three.
By Whom all nature hath creation,
Eternal Father, Spirit, Word:
Praise to the Lord of my salvation,
Salvation is of Christ the Lord.

6. It washes all your sins away
And makes you pure and holy.
Hell's hold on you was lost that day,
God's freedom for the lowly.
You are now truly God's dear child
An heir of heaven undefiled
With crown to cast before Him.

7. Your nature lost in Adam's fall,
Corrupt through generations,
Refreshed now in the waterfall-
A perfect new creation!
The death of death before your eyes:
God's power must be recognized.
Hell's demons lie defeated!

8. Now we can gladly draw to Christ
And boldly ask His blessing
Because of Jesus' sacrifice,
Our sins upon Him pressing.
The Father looks on us and sees
Christ's holiness and His good deeds:
White robes giv'n by His merit.

9. This holy bath ... What pow'r displays!
What wondrous grace-filled cleansing;
None on their own can e'er appraise
The value of their raising.
The Word of God in simple form
Can calm the tempest and the storm.
It brings peace to your spirit.

10. Plain water cannot wash our sin
Nor clean our inward spirit,
But water with God's promise can
Bring all the Father wills it.
The water that floods over you
From God's command has strength imbued.
His Name is placed upon you.

11. Too precious to repay somehow,
Just grateful thanks we offer.
Christ's work has been delivered now
To you through Word and water.
Nothing but Christ's atoning work
In you could kill death's ugly smirk
You're now refreshed and holy.

12. Now gladly live as God's dear child
Proclaim to all His Gospel
Shine to the world; be undefiled...
A beacon to all people.
Till called home to eternal joy
With new song that we'll all employ
To cast our crowns before Him.

With sin my soul is sore opprest;
Receive me graciously and gladden
My heart, for I am now Thy guest.

7. Thou here wilt find a heart most lowly
That humbly falls before Thy feet,
That duly weeps o'er sin, yet solely
Thy merit pleads, as it is meet.

8. By faith I call Thy holy table
The testament of Thy deep love;
For, lo, thereby I now am able
To see how love Thy heart doth move.

Unto the poor, to weak ones power,
To angels joy, to hell confounding,
And life for me in death's dark hour.

These are my life and strength forever,
By them my hungry soul is fed.

12. With Thee, Lord, I am now united;
I live in Thee and Thou in me.
No sorrow fills my soul, delighted
It finds its only joy in Thee.

13. Who can condemn me now? For surely
The Lord is nigh, who justifies.
No hell I fear, and thus securely
With Jesus I to Heaven rise.

14. Though death may threaten with disaster,
It cannot rob me of my cheer;
For He Who is of death the Master,
With aid and comfort e'er is near.

15. My heart has now become Thy dwelling, O blessèd, holy Trinity.
With angels I, Thy praises telling, Shall live in joy eternally.

Crown Him the King to Whom is given the wondrous name of Love.

Crown Him, ye kings, with many crowns, for He is King of all.
8. Crown Him the Lord of lords, who over all doth reign,
Who once on earth, the incarnate Word, for ransomed sinners slain,
Now lives in realms of light, where saints with angels sing
Their songs before Him day and night, their God, Redeemer, King.

Creator of the rolling spheres, ineffably sublime.
All hail, Redeemer, hail! For Thou has died for me;

6. Hear Him, ye deaf; His praise, ye dumb,
Your loosened tongues employ;
Ye blind, behold your Savior come,
And leap, ye lame, for joy.

7. In Christ your Head, you then shall know,
Shall feel your sins forgiven;
Anticipate your heaven below,
And own that love is heaven.

8. Glory to God, and praise and love
Be ever, ever given,
By saints below and saints above,
The church in earth and heaven.

9. On this glad day the glorious Sun
Of Righteousness arose;
On my benighted soul He shone
And filled it with repose.

10. Sudden expired the legal strife,
'Twas then I ceased to grieve;
My second, real, living life
I then began to live.

11. Then with my heart I first believed,
Believed with faith divine,
Power with the Holy Ghost received
To call the Savior mine.

12. I felt my Lord's atoning blood
Close to my soul applied;
Me, me He loved, the Son of God,
For me, for me He died!

13. I found and owned His promise true,
Ascertained of my part,
My pardon passed in heaven I knew
When written on my heart.

14. Look unto Him, ye nations, own
Your God, ye fallen race;
Look, and be saved through faith alone,
Be justified by grace.

15. See all your sins on Jesus laid:
The Lamb of God was slain,
His soul was once an offering made
For every soul of man.

16. Awake from guilty nature's sleep,
And Christ shall give you light,
Cast all your sins into the deep,
And wash the Æthiop white.

17. Harlots and publicans and thieves
In holy triumph join!
Saved is the sinner that believes
From crimes as great as mine.

18. Murderers and all ye hellish crew,
Ye sons of lust and pride,
Believe the Savior died for you;
For me the Savior died.

19. With me, your chief, ye then shall know,
Shall feel your sins forgiven;
Anticipate your heaven below,
And own that love is heaven.

6. Christ, Thou art the sole oblation
That I'll bring before my God;
In his sight I've acceptation
Only through Thy streaming blood:
Immaculate righteousness now I've acquired,
Since Thou on the tree of the cross hast expired;
The robe of salvation for ever is mine,
In this shall my faith through eternity shine.

7. Let my soul, in full exemption,
Wake up in Thy likeness now;
Thou art made to me redemption,
My sanctification Thou.
Whatever I need for my Journey to Heaven
In Thee, I my Savior, is unto me given.
Oh! let me all perishing pleasures forgo,
And Thy life, O Jesus! alone let me know.

8. Where should else my hopes be centered?
Grace o'erwhelms me with its flood;
Thou, my Savior, once hast enter'd
Holiest heaven through Thy blood:
Eternal redemption for sinners there finding,
From hell's dark dominion my spirit unbinding,
To me perfect freedom Thy entrance has brought,
And childlike to cry, "Abba, Father," I'm taught.

9. Christ Himself, my Shepherd, feeds me,
Peace and joy my spirit fill;
In a pasture green He leads me
Forth beside the waters still:
Oh! naught to my soul is so sweet and reviving,
As thus unto Jesus alone to be living;
True happiness this, and this only supplies,
Through faith on my Savior to fasten my eyes.

10. Therefore, Jesus, my Salvation,
Thou my One, my All shalt be;
Prove my fix'd determination,
Root out all hypocrisy:
Look well if on sin's slippery paths I am hasting,
And lead me, O Lord, in the way everlasting;
This one thing is needful, all others are vain,
I count all but loss that I Christ may obtain.

6. By grace! but think not, thou who livest
Securely on in godless ways,
That thou, though all are called, receivest
The promised rest that wakes our praise:
By grace none find in heaven a place
Who live in sin in hope of grace.

7. By grace! They who have heard this sentence
Must bid hypocrisy farewell;
For only after deep repentance
The soul what grace imports can tell;
To sin while grace a trifle seems,
To faith it bright with glory beams.

8. By grace the timid hearts that languish,
Find access to the Father's heart,
When conflicts fierce and bitter anguish
Bid all their joy and hopes depart.
Where, oftimes, should I strength obtain,
Bid grace my anchor not remain!

9. By grace! on this in death I'll rest me,
Rejoicing e'en though feeling naught;
I know my sin it oft oppressed me
But Him, too, who my soul hath bought:
My heart exults grief flees apace
Because my soul is saved by grace.

10. By grace! O sin and Satan hear it!
I bear my flag of faith in hand,
And pass, in spite of doubts, nor fear it,
The Red Sea to the promised land;
I hold the word my Savior taught
As certain, whether felt or not.

A servant's form like mine he wore, To bind the devil captive.

7. To me he spake : cling fast to me, Thou'lt win a triumph worthy:
I wholly give myself for thee, I strive and wrestle for thee;
For I am thine, thou mine also;
And where I am thou art. The foe Shall never more divide us.

8. For he shall shed my precious blood, Me of my life bereaving;
All this I suffer for thy good; Be steadfast and believing.
My life from death the day shall win,
My righteousness shall bear thy sin, So art thou blest forever.

9. Now to my Father I depart, From earth to heaven ascending;
Thence heavenly wisdom to impart, The Holy Spirit sending.
He shall in trouble comfort thee,
Teach thee to know and follow me, And to the truth conduct thee.

10. What I have done and taught, do thou To do and teach endeavor;
So shall my kingdom flourish now, And God be praised forever.
Take heed lest men with base alloy
The heavenly treasure should destroy. This counsel I bequeath thee.

Scourged, mocked, in crown of thorns arrayed,
For us He bore the cross's death,
For us at length gave up His breath.

7. For us He rose from death again;
For us He went on high to reign;
For us He sent His Spirit here,
To guide, to strengthen, and to cheer.

All glory, as is ever meet
To Father and to Paraclete.

Salvation Unto Us Has Come

(also known as To Us Salvation Now Is Come)

Music: 'Es ist das Heil uns Kommen Her' traditional German circa 1400 from Etlich Christlich Lider, Wittenberg, 1524.

5. Yet as the Law must be fulfilled
Or we must die despairing,
Christ came and hath God's anger stilled,
Our human nature sharing.
He hath for us the Law obeyed
And thus the Father's vengeance stayed
Which over us impended.

6. Since Christ hath full atonement made
And brought to us salvation,
Each Christian therefore may be glad
And build on this foundation.
Thy grace alone, dear Lord, I plead,
Thy death is now my life indeed,
For Thou hast paid my ransom.

7. Let me not doubt, but trust in Thee,
Thy Word cannot be broken;
Thy call rings out, "Come unto Me!"
No falsehood hast Thou spoken.
Baptized into Thy precious name,
My faith cannot be put to shame,
And I shall never perish.

8. The Law reveals the guilt of sin
And makes men conscience-stricken;
The Gospel then doth enter in
The sinful soul to quicken.
Come to the cross, trust Christ, and live;
The Law no peace can ever give,
No comfort and no blessing.

9. Faith clings to Jesus' cross alone
And rests in Him unceasing;
And by its fruits true faith is known,
With love and hope increasing.
Yet faith alone doth justify,
Works serve thy neighbor and supply
The proof that faith is living.

10. Δ All blessing, honor, thanks, and praise
To Father, Son, and Spirit,
The God that saved us by His grace,-
All glory to His merit!
O Triune God in heaven above,
Who hast revealed Thy saving love,
Thy blessed name be hallowed.

What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

7. I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

8. Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes;

Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

Jerusalem the Golden

Words: Bernard of Cluny, 1146. Translated by John Mason Neale, 1858.

6. That we should look, poor wanderers, to have our home on high!
That worms should seek for dwellings beyond the starry sky!
And now we fight the battle, but then shall wear the crown
Of full and everlasting, and passionless renown.

7. And how we watch and struggle, and now we live in hope,
And Zion in her anguish with Babylon must cope;
But he whom now we trust in shall then be seen and known,
And they that know and see Him shall have Him for their own.

8. For thee, O dear, dear country, mine eyes their vigils keep;
For very love, beholding, thy happy name, they weep:
The mention of thy glory is unction to the breast,
And medicine in sickness, and love, and life, and rest.

9. O one, O only mansion! O paradise of joy!
Where tears are ever banished, and smiles have no alloy;
The cross is all thy splendor, the Crucified thy praise,
His laud and benediction thy ransomed people raise.

10. Jerusalem the glorious! Glory of the elect!
O dear and future vision that eager hearts expect!
E'en now by faith I see thee, e'en here thy walls discern;
To thee my thoughts are kindled, and strive, and pant, and yearn.

11. Jerusalem, the only, that look'st from heaven below,
In thee is all my glory, in me is all my woe!
And though my body may not, my spirit seeks thee fain,
Till flesh and earth return me to earth and flesh again.

12. Jerusalem, exulting on that securest shore,
I hope thee, wish thee, sing thee, and love thee evermore!
I ask not for my merit: I seek not to deny
My merit is destruction, a child of wrath am I.

13. But yet with faith I venture and hope upon the way,
For those perennial guerdons I labor night and day.
The best and dearest Father Who made me, and Who saved,
Bore with me in defilement, and from defilement laved.

14. When in His strength I struggle, for very joy I leap;
When in my sin I totter, I weep, or try to weep:
And grace, sweet grace celestial, shall all its love display,
And David's royal fountain purge every stain away.

15. O sweet and blessèd country, shall I e'er see thy face?
O sweet and blessèd country, shall I e'er win thy grace?
I have the hope within me to comfort and to bless!
O shall I e'er win the prize? O tell me, tell me, Yes!

St. Andrew the Apostle [Nov 30]

2. Praise, Lord, for Thine apostle,
The first to welcome Thee,
The first to lead his brother
The very Christ to see.
With hearts for Thee made ready,
Watch we throughout the year,
Forward to lead our brethren
To own Thine advent near.

St. Thomas the Apostle (Didymus) [Dec 21]

3. All praise for Thine apostle,
Whose short-lived doubtings prove
Thy perfect twofold nature,
The fullness of Thy love.
On all who wait Thy coming
Shed forth Thy peace, O Lord,
And grant us faith to know Thee,
True man, true God, adored.

St. Stephen the Martyr [Dec 26]

4. Praise for the first of martyrs,
Who saw Thee ready stand
To aid in midst of torments,
To plead at God's right hand.
Share we with him, if summoned
By death our Lord to own,
On earth the faithful witness,
In heaven the martyr's crown.

St. John the Apostle and Evangelist [Dec 27]

5. Praise for the loved disciple,
Exile on Patmos' shore;
Praise for the faithful record
He to Thy Godhead bore,
Praise for the mystic vision
Through him to us revealed.
May we, in patience waiting,
With Thine elect be sealed.

The Holy Innocents [Dec 28]

6. Praise for Thine infant martyrs,
By Thee with tenderest love
Called early from the warfare
To share the rest above.
O Rachel! cease thy weeping:
They rest from pains and cares.
Lord, grant us hearts as guileless
And crowns as bright as theirs.

Conversion of St. Paul the Apostle [Jan 25]

7. Praise for the light from Heaven,
Praise for the voice of awe,
Praise for the glorious vision
The persecutor saw.
Thee, Lord, for his conversion,
We glorify today;
So lighten all our darkness
With Thy true Spirit's ray.

St. Matthias the Apostle [Feb 24]

8. Lord, Thine abiding presence
Directs the wondrous choice
For one in place of Judas
The faithful now rejoice.
Thy Church from false apostles
Forevermore defend,
And by Thy parting promise
Be with her to the end.

St. Mark the Evangelist [April 25]

9. For him, O Lord, we praise Thee,
The weak by grace made strong,
Whose labors and whose Gospel
Enrich our triumph song.
May we in all our weakness
Find strength from Thee supplied,
And all, as fruitful branches,
In Thee, the Vine, abide.

St. Philip and St. James (the Younger, son of Alphaeus) the Apostles [May 1]

10. All praise for Thine apostle,
Blest guide to Greek and Jew,
And him surnamed Thy brother
Keep us Thy brethren true,
And grant us grace to know Thee,
The Way, the Truth, the Life;
To wrestle with temptations
Till victors in the strife.

St. Barnabas the Son of Encouragement [June 11]

11. The Son of Consolation,
Moved by Thy law of love,
Forsaking earthly treasures,
Sought riches from above.
As earth now teems with increase,
Let gifts of grace descend,
That Thy true consolations
May through the world extend.

Nativity of St. John the Baptist [Jun 24]

12. We praise Thee for the Baptist,
Forerunner of the Word,
Our true Elias, making
A highway for the Lord.
Of prophets last and greatest,
We saw Thy dawning ray:
Make us the rather blessed
Who love Thy glorious day.

St. (Simon) Peter the Apostle [Jun 29]

13. Praise for Thy great apostle,
The eager and the bold;
Thrice falling, yet repentant,
Thrice charged to keep Thy fold.
Lord, make Thy pastors faithful
To guard their flocks from ill,
And grant them dauntless courage,
With humble, earnest will.

St. James the Elder (son of Zebedee, son of Thunder, brother of John) the Apostle [July 25]

14. For him, O Lord, we praise Thee,
Who, slain by Herod's sword
Drank of Thy cup of suffering,
Fulfilling thus Thy word.
Curb we all vain impatience
To read Thy veiled decree,
And count it joy to suffer,
If so brought nearer Thee.

St. Bartholomew (Nathanael) the Apostle [Aug 24]

15. All praise for Thine apostle,
The faithful, pure, and true,
Whom underneath the fig tree
Thine eye all seeing knew.
Like him may we be guileless,
True Israelites indeed,
That Thy abiding presence
Our longing souls may feed.

St. Matthew (Levi) the Apostle and Evangelist [Sep 21]

16. Praise, Lord, for Him whose Gospel
Thy human life declared,
Who, worldly gains forsaking,
Thy path of suffering shared.
From all unrighteous Mammon
O give us hearts set free,
That we, whate'er our calling,
May rise and follow Thee.

St. Luke the Evangelist [Oct 18]

17. For that "beloved physician,"
All praise, whose Gospel shows
The healer of the nations,
The sharer of our woes.
Thy wine and oil, O Savior,
And bruised hearts deign to pour,
And with true balm of Gilead
Anoint us evermore.

St. Simon (the Canaanite, the Zealot) and St. Jude (Thaddeus, Judas not Iscariot) the Apostles [Oct 28]

18. Praise, Lord, for Thine apostles,
Who sealed their faith today:
One love, one zeal impelled them
To tread the sacred way.
May we with zeal as earnest
The faith of Christ maintain,
And, bound in love as brethren,
At length Thy rest attain.

6. All around us Lord we see a
World that spins and spirals down.
While our hindered human eyes can't
See You turning us around.
Give us faith to trust Your mercy,
Make us confident to be
Called and holy as Your Church who
Shout and sing Your victory.

7. In our lives and times so broken
By our sin and willful pride
Or just with uncertainty, Your
Plans You often seem to hide,
Give us faith to trust Your mercy,
Make us confident to be
Called and holy as Your Church who
Shout and sing Your victory.

When evil foes against us plot
And vex our souls on every hand,
Oh, give us strength that we may stand
Firm in the faith, a well-armed host,
Through comfort of the Holy Ghost!

The times and days are perilous.
Redeem us from eternal death,
And when we yield our dying breath,
Console us, grant us calm release,
And take our souls to Thee in peace.

9. Amen, that is, So shall it be.
Confirm our faith and hope in Thee
That we may doubt not, but believe
What here we ask we shall receive.
Thus in Thy name and at Thy word
We say: Amen. Oh, hear us, Lord! Amen.

6. Naught, naught, can now condemn me Nor set my hope aside;
Now hell no more can claim me, Its fury I deride.
No sentence e'er reproves me, No ill destroys my peace;
For Christ, my Savior, loves me And shields me with His grace.

7. His Spirit in me dwelleth, And o'er my mind He reigns.
All sorrow He dispelleth And soothes away all pains.
He crowns His work with blessing And helpeth me to cry,
"My Father!" without ceasing, To Him who dwells on high.

8. And when my soul is lying Weak, trembling, and opprest,
He pleads with groans and sighing That cannot be exprest;
But God's quick eye discerns them, Although they give no sound,
And into language turns them E'en in the heart's deep ground.

9. To mine His Spirit speaketh Sweet word of holy cheer,
How God to him that seeketh For rest is always near
And how He hath erected A city fair and new,
Where what our faith expected We evermore shall view.

10. In yonder home doth flourish My heritage, my lot;
Though here I die and perish, My heaven shall fail me not.
Though care my life oft saddens And causeth tears to flow,
The light of Jesus gladdens And sweetens every woe.

11. Who clings with resolution To Him whom Satan hates
Must look for persecution; For him the burden waits
Of mockery, shame, and losses, Heaped on his blameless head;
A thousand plagues and crosses Will be his daily bread.

12. From me this is not hidden, Yet I am not afraid;
I leave my cares, as bidden, To whom my vows were paid.
Though life and limb it cost me And everything I won,
Unshaken shall I trust Thee And cleave to Thee alone.

13. Though earth be rent asunder, Thou'rt mine eternally;
Not fire nor sword nor thunder Shall sever me from Thee;
Not hunger, thirst, nor danger, Not pain nor poverty
Nor mighty princes' anger Shall ever hinder me.

14. No angel and no gladness, No throne, no pomp, no show,
No love, no hate, no sadness, No pain, no depth of woe,
No scheme of man's contrivance, However small or great,
Shall draw me from Thy guidance Nor from Thee separate.

15. My heart for joy is springing And can no more be sad,
'Tis full of mirth and singing, Sees naught but sunshine glad.
The Sun that cheers my spirit Is Jesus Christ, my King;
That which I shall inherit Makes me rejoice and sing.

O never then from me depart;
For to my soul 'tis hell to be

6. Father, O hear me: Pardon and spare me; Calm all my terrors,
Blot out my errors, That by Thine eyes they may no more be scanned.
Order my goings; Direct all my doings; As it may please Thee,
Retain or release me; All I Commit to Thy Fatherly hand.

7. Wilt Thou to try me, With all supply me, Nature requireth,
Or heart desireth, Whisper this counsel of love in my breast,
"God is the greatest, The fairest, the sweetest, God is the purest,
The truest, the surest, And of all treasures the noblest and best."

8. Or should Thou give me, Wormwood to grieve me Griefs to distress me,
Burdens to press me, Welcome whatever Thy Word hath decreed.
My kind Physician Knows well my condition, That which will hurt me,
Or heal and convert me, God will not chasten us more than we need.

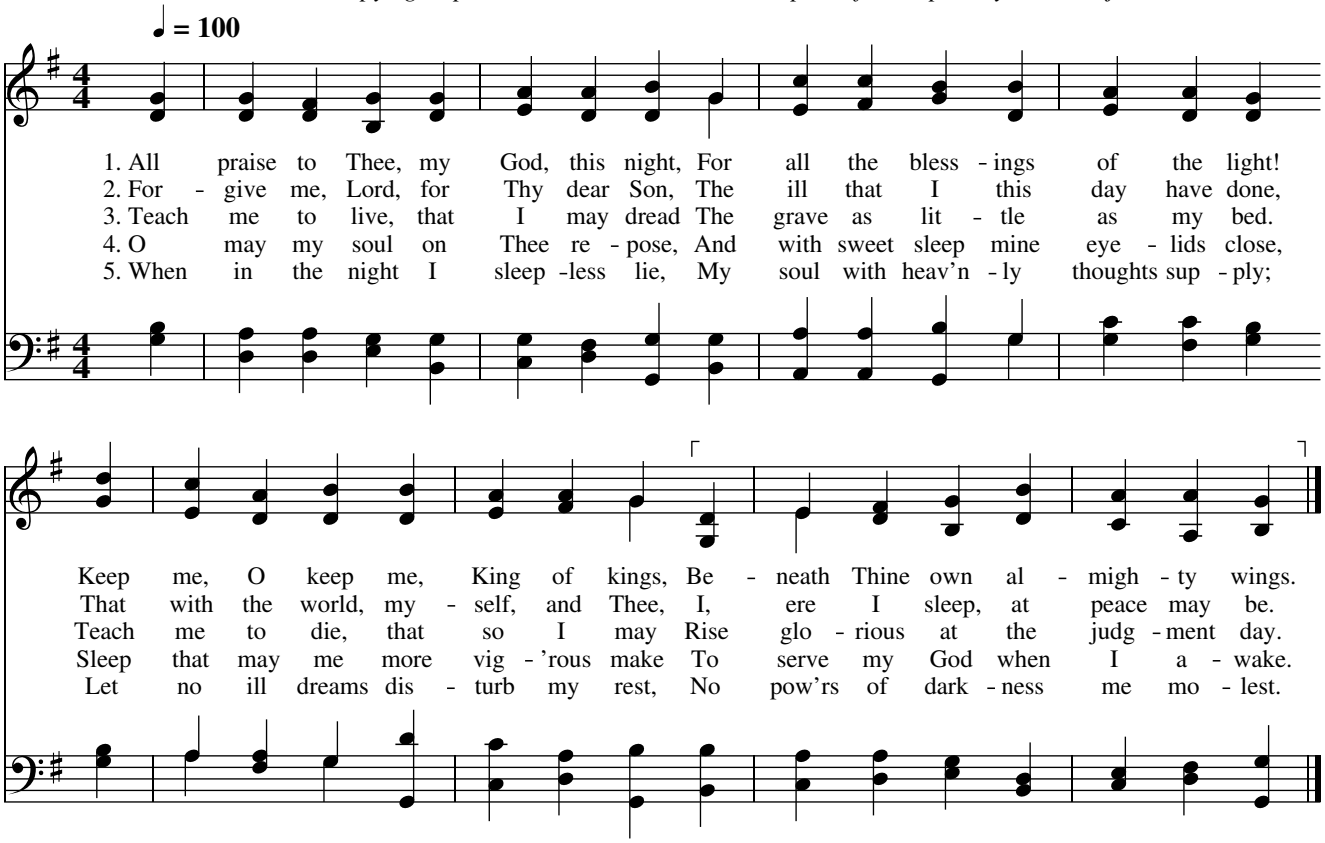

9. Griefs of God's sending, All have an ending; Clouds may be pouring,
Wind and wave roaring, Sunshine will come when the tempest has past:
Joys still increasing, And peace never ceasing, Faith lost in vision,
Hope in fruition, These are the joys which I look for at last.
