

The Open Hymnal

Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany Edition

2012

This Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany Hymnal is a part of the Open Hymnal Project to create a freely distributable, downloadable database of Christian hymns, spiritual songs, and prelude/postlude music. I am doing my best to create a final product that is "Hymnal-quality", and could feasibly be used as the basis for a printed church hymnal. This music is to be distributed as complete scores (words and music), using all accompaniment parts, in formats that are easily accessible on most computer OS's and which can be freely modified by anyone.

Open Hymnal Project, 2012 Edition

"Freely you received, so freely give." - Matthew 10:8 (WEB)

What is Advent? Why do we celebrate it?

Advent (the word means "coming") is a season of the Church calendar which immediately precedes Christmas. It is a season of anticipation, excitement, and preparation. Imagine the excitement of an expectant mother and her family in the days just before her baby is born; we're nearly overflowing with anticipation, but the party hasn't fully started just yet.

We are actually celebrating three "comings" of Christ in Advent: past, present, and future...

1. The coming of Christ to Earth in human flesh when He was born in Bethlehem two thousand years ago
2. The coming of Christ among us through the work of the Holy Spirit, whereby we are nourished by His Word and Sacraments
3. The coming of Christ in glory at the last day. For just as we celebrated our future resurrection promised by Christ's resurrection at Easter, and as we celebrated our future presence with the Father promised by Christ's presence with the Father granted at Ascension day, now we anticipate the delivery and fulfillment of these promises for us: the last day.

We see all of these at the same time, and we see them connected. We see in Christmas Christ's fulfillment of God's promises to send a Savior, and we anticipate the fulfillment of the remaining promises: an end of all strife and pain in the world, and perfect harmony with God restored!

And so, like a family waiting the birth of a newborn, or like children awaiting the return of their beloved father who's been away for a long time, we prepare. To do so, we look to the example of others who have prepared for Christ. Like John the Baptist, we say "Make ready the way of the Lord! Make his paths straight!" and "Repent!" We see in ourselves the sinfulness which we have no power to overcome and we see clearly the cross of Jesus, the Savior, who has overcome our sinfulness for us, that we may be called Children of God!

So celebrate with us! Maranatha: Amen! Yes, come, Lord Jesus.

 O haste the ris - ing of that morn, The day that aye shall last.

6. And let the endless bliss begin,
 By weary saints foretold,
 When right shall triumph over wrong,
 And truth shall be extolled.

7. The King shall come when morning dawns,
 And light and beauty brings:
 Hail, Christ the Lord! Thy people pray,
 Come quickly, King of kings.

 Whereon Thou King, so rich and great,
 As 'twere Thy heaven, art throned in state.

12. Thus hath it pleased Thee to make plain
 The truth to us, poor fools and vain,
 That this world's honor, wealth and might
 Are naught and worthless in Thy sight.

13. Ah, dearest Jesus, holy Child,
 Make Thee a bed, soft, undefiled,
 Here in my poor heart's inmost shrine,
 That I may evermore be Thine.

14. My heart for very joy doth leap,
 My lips no more can silence keep,
 I too must sing, with joyful tongue,
 That sweetest ancient cradle song.

15. Glory to God in highest Heaven,
 Who unto man His Son hath given,
 While angels sing, with pious mirth,
 A glad New Year to all the earth.

This hymn was written by Martin Luther to teach his 3 year old son about Christmas, and became a part of the Luther family Christmas tradition. One of the adults would dress up as an angel and sing the first 5 verses to the family. The rest of the family would sing verses 6 through 15.

Words: Christina Georgina Rossetti, 1872, alt.

 2. Our God, Heav'n can-not hold Him, nor earth sus-tain;
 3. E-nough for Him, whom cher-u-bim, wor-ship night and day,
 4. An-gels and arch-an-gels may have ga-thered there,
 5. What can I give Him, poor as I am?

Earth stood hard as i-ron, wa-ter like a stone;
 Heav'n and earth shall flee a-way when He comes to reign.
 Breast-ful of milk, and a man-ger-ful of hay; En-
 cher-u-bim and ser-a-phim thronged the air;
 If I were a shep-herd, I would bring a lamb;

Snow had fall-en, snow on snow, snow on snow on snow,
 In the bleak mid-winter a sta-ble place suf-ficed
 ough for Him, whom an-gels fall-down be-fore,
 But His mo-ther on-ly, in her mai-den bliss,
 If I were a Wise Man, I would do my part;

In the bleak mid-winter, long a-go.
 The Lord God Al-migh-ty, Je-sus Christ.
 Ox and ass and ca-mel which a-dore.
 Wor-shipped the be-loved with a kiss.
 Yet what can I give Him: give my heart.

These lyrics are rather obscure, though quite beautiful. The earth (which represents all of God's promises to His People, Gen 13:14–15, Rom 4:13–17, Mt 5:5) and the water (which represents Baptism and forgiveness, Jn 3:5, Eph 5:25–27, 1Pt 3:21) are frozen and lifeless as the Law reigns alone (2Cor 3:6b), with no grace flowing before Christ. The Spirit works in the world through the condemnation of the Law and the hope for redemption to come (frosty wind made moan, Micah 4:10, Ez 21:6–7). Then Christ humbly comes to melt the icy world in grace. This then inspires those saved, who recognize that they have nothing to give to Him, to finally, through His grace, fulfill the greatest commandment (Mt 22:37).

6. Who in this mercy hath not faith, Nor aught therein discerneth,
Is yet in sin, condemned to death, And fire that ever burneth;
His holiness avails him not, Nor aught which he is doing;
His inborn sin brings all to naught, And maketh sure his ruin;
Himself he cannot succor.

7. The eye of sense alone is dim, And nothing sees but water;
Faith sees Christ Jesus, and in Him The Lamb ordained for slaughter;
She sees the cleansing fountain red With the dear blood of Jesus,
Which from the sins inherited From fallen Adam frees us,
And from our own misdoings.

Words: John Mason Neale, 1853.

COPYING

The Open Hymnal Project uses copyright law of the United States of America. In other countries, it is your responsibility to verify each hymn as being freely distributable.

Four parts of a hymn are copyrightable:

1. Music (melody)
2. Setting (also known as arrangement or harmony)
3. Words (original language)
4. Translation (if applicable)

Each of these parts holds a separate copyright status, and must be considered individually.

Most of the hymns in the Open Hymnal are in the public domain in all four of these parts. Some are not. Specific copyright terms are listed on each score sheet and in each abc file.

All content produced specifically by the Open Hymnal which is not a part of a hymn is placed into the public domain. This includes compilation, indices, web pages (or parts thereof), scripts used to assemble the hymnal, and all other data files. Work from other open source projects is not our copyright and remains copyright of the respective owners. This includes but is not limited to the "Zebra Tables" script by David S. Miller used on the web pages, which remains copyright of David S. Miller.

PUBLIC DOMAIN

All hymns or hymn parts listed as "public domain" are not under copyright protection in the United States of America. In other words there is absolutely no ownership of the intellectual property that the words, translation, music, or setting represents.

No one may restrict you from using these hymn parts in any way (in the USA). Similarly, you may not restrict others from using them in any way. If you change a portion of the public domain work, you may only claim copyright on the portion which you have changed.

OTHER

Each work in the Open Hymnal which is not in the public domain gives specific license terms on the score sheet and in the abc source file.

Most of these have a license which reads similar to the following (from the hymn "Author of All Life"):

Words: Copyright 2009, Brian J. Dumont. These lyrics may be freely reproduced or published for Christian worship, provided they are not altered, and this notice is on each copy. All other rights reserved.

This means that you may freely use, print, reproduce, and make available for others the work in question, provided that the purpose is for Christian worship and that the copyright terms are left intact and are reproduced with the copyrighted work. This does not prevent you from using the copyrighted work as a part of another work which will be sold for-profit, provided that these terms are met.

Other license terms may be available, but can only be negotiated with the copyright holder. If you would like to use one of these works but require a different license, the Open Hymnal will attempt to help you to contact the copyright holder.
