1. Stricken, smitten, and afflicted, See Him dying on the tree!
2. Tell me, ye who hear Him groaning, Was there ever grief like His?
3. Ye who think of sin but lightly, Nor suppose the evil great,
4. Here we have a firm foundation, Here the refuge of the lost.

'Tis the Christ by man rejected; Yes, my soul, 'tis He, 'tis He!
Friends through fear His cause owning, Foes insulting his distress:
Here may view its nature rightly, Here its guilt may estimate.
Christ the Rock of our salvation, Christ the Name of which we boast.

'Tis the long expected prophet, David's Son, yet David's Lord;
Many hands were raised to wound Him, None would interpose to save;
Mark the Sacrifice appointed! See Who bears the awful load!
Lamb of God for sinners wounded! Sacrifice to cancel guilt!

Proofs I see sufficient of it: 'Tis a true and faithful Word.
But the deepest stroke that pierced Him Was the stroke that Justice gave.
'Tis the Word, the Lord's Anointed, Son of Man, and Son of God.
None shall ever be confounded Who on Him their hope have built.
