The Winds and Billows Loudly Roar

TRUST

Words: Christopher Wordsworth, 1865.
Music and Setting: 'Consolation' or 'Morning Song' John Wyeth, 1813.

6. Touch not, with rude, irreverent hands,
And coward faithlessness,
Him, who the winds and waves commands;
But wait in quietness.

7. O never, never when distressed,
To doubtful means resort;
Christ's Bark, when on the billow's crest,
Is safe as in the port.
